

The Sophie Davis Forum on Gender, Conflict Resolution and Peace together with The Department of International Relations cordially invites you to an experts' discussion on:

Gender Aspects of Conflicts and Conflict Resolution

Monday, January 6, 2020 5:00-7:00pm

The Dan Wassong Auditorium, Yitzhak Rabin. Building, Mount Scopus campus.

Why is it important to examine gender aspects of and perspectives on conflicts and conflict resolution? How conflicts impact women of diverse populations, in Israel and globally? How do the UN and other international agencies and entities view integration of women in conflict resolution processes? How do women participate in conflict resolution processes in locations around the globe? How do Israeli women of diverse populations promote and enable women's participation in conflict resolution processes?
